Jason's Journal

Hello Brother <<First Name>>,

Thank you for allowing me to be Grand Knight for this past year. I have learned a lot about our council and about you as individuals. I feel blessed to have been given this opportunity. I hope you feel I did a good job. I wanted to remind you of some of the new things our council did this past year while keeping our status quo with all our other events and increasing funds raised in each. We had our first 5k Run/2k Walk where we net over $4000 which we used to support Special Olympics, Hope for Haitians, GAF and other charities. Turnout was excellent and looking even better for next year. Participating in Supreme's Charity, Food for the Poor we were able to raise $3000 which we were able to help our local food banks and churches. We are also gaining on the goal of 300 Knights in our council. Personally, my goal was to keep our meetings short and sweet... well at least I usually got the short part right.

Just a reminder, come to the Knights picnic and bring your family this Saturday as we cheer on our Dragon Boat team. Please bring a dish to pass. Also, we have a first degree coming up on June 10th. Let's get those new members initiated.

Thank you again for the opportunity to be your Grand Knight.

God Bless,

from heaven and water from a rock for forty years until they reached the promised land. This event prefigures the miracle of the loaves and fishes in today's gospel: "Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied (Lk 9:16-17)." It also prefigures the event of the Last Supper when Jesus instituted in the breaking of the bread and sharing of the cup of wine what we call the Eucharist, as Paul relates in today's second reading from his first letter to the Corinthians: "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper, he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me (1 Cor 11:23-25)."

The body and blood of Christ is manna from heaven. By sharing in the Eucharistic feast, we are being fed by God on our pilgrim journey in the desert of life until we reach the promised land, the kingdom of God in heaven. In our modern day of busyness and time constraints, we sometimes miss the intent that our Lord has for all of us, that is, to unite us as a community of love that is intended for the whole of creation - to make us one in Christ and with Christ and through Christ. This Body and Blood of Christ is the supreme act of love, a self-giving of himself for our redemption. God is love! Jesus Christ is God! Therefore, we, in sharing in the Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ, we are consuming love. As the saying goes: "We are what we eat." Then, we should be growing into a community of love, becoming more Christ-like. This is what we celebrate on this feast of the Body and Blood of Christ.

The Sequence reading in today's liturgy aptly praises and sums up the beauty of this Solemnity:

"Zion, praise your Savior. Praise your leader and shepherd in hymns and canticles. Praise him as much as you can, for he is beyond all praising and you will never be able to praise him as he merits. But today a theme worthy of particular praise is put before us --- the living and life-giving bread that, without doubt, was given to the Twelve at table during the holy supper. Therefore, let our praise be full and resounding and our soul's rejoicing full of delight and beauty, for this is the festival day to commemorate the first institution of this table. At this table of the new King, the new law's new Pasch puts an end to the old Pasch. The new displaces the old, reality the shadow and light the darkness. Christ wanted what he did at the supper to be repeated in his memory. And so we, in accordance with his holy directions, consecrate bread and wine to be salvation's Victim. Christ's followers know by faith that bread is changed into his flesh, and wine into his blood. Man cannot understand this, cannot perceive it; but a lively faith affirms that the change, which is outside the natural course of things, takes place. Under the different species, which are now signs only and not their own reality, there lie hid wonderful realities. His body is our food, his blood our drink. And yet Christ remains entire under each species. The communicant receives the complete Christ --- uncut, unbroken and undivided. Whether one receives, or a thousand, the one receives as much as the thousand. Nor is Christ diminished by being received. The good and the wicked alike receive him, but with the unlike destiny of life or death. To the wicked it is death, but to the good, life. See how different is the result, though each receives the same. Last of all, if the sacrament is broken, have no doubt. Remember there is as much in a fragment as in an unbroken host. There is no division of the reality, but only a breaking of the sign; nor does the breaking diminish the size of the One hidden under the sign. Behold, the bread of angels has become the pilgrim's food; truly it is bread for the sons, and is not to be cast to the dogs. It was prefigured in type when Issac was brought as an offering, when a lamb was appointed for the Pasch and when manna was given to the Jews of old. Jesus, good shepherd and true bread, have mercy on us; feed us and guard us. Grant that we find happiness in the land of the living. You know all things, can do all things, and feed us here on earth. Make us your guests in heaven, co-heirs with you and companions of heaven's citizens. Amen. Alleluia."

Oh Lord, help us to ponder these words, to instill their reality into our lives, and, to help our children be inspired by this great gift you have given us. May the Lord bless you and strengthen you in his Body and his Blood and make you one with him and with one another.

Ladies Auxiliary Report

Hello All!

The Ladies recently enjoyed our June meeting at the home of Julia Cooper. In addition to our business meeting we enjoyed socializing in Julia's Hoochiebob and welcomed a prospective member to our group.

We've taken on a new service project dealing with bereavement. Working in conjunction with St. Patrick's parish nurse, Victoria Naughton, we will be signing cards of encouragement and support to be sent to St. Pat's members grieving the loss of a loved one. Thanks to Julie Konetzki for bringing this need to our attention.

Our annual luncheon for the Religious Sisters is still in the works. We're hoping to secure a date soon for this fall.

The next "Dine at Gabby's" day is coming up soon. All day Sunday, June 9th and/or the previous evening on Saturday, June 8th after the evening Masses, anyone who dines at Gabby's (on Rt. 64 in St. Charles) can put their paid receipt in the "KC Ladies Auxiliary" container near the register. The receipts will be totaled and the Ladies Auxiliary will receive 10%! Gabby's is very generous in continuing the "Dine at Gabby's" to help support the work of the Ladies Auxiliary. Please remember to drop in your receipt! We appreciate your support and thank you, Gabby's, for your generosity and support of the Ladies Auxiliary!

We are looking forward to all the upcoming summer family events sponsored by the Knights, in particular the family picnic and dragon boats this weekend!

In an ongoing effort for parish community involvement and spirituality, a few event reminders from the Ladies Auxiliary:

Recitation of the Rosary on the First Saturday of the month
3:30 p.m. (Before 4:00 Mass) at St. Patrick - Crane Rd. and after 5:15 Mass at St. John Neumann

Our Blessed Mother asks us to pray the Rosary - Please

God and family are 1 and 1A in Jacks life. Volunteering in church and community were instilled in him by his late father, Serving on boards and as officer of Parish Councils, school board, Area Council YMCA, Rotary, and Kiwanis were rewarding for Jack but the more rewarding activities were those face-to-face connections with those in need such as it was as a CASA volunteer.

Jack is a covert from the Greek Orthodox Church, having entered the Catholic Church nearly five years ago. He met his wife Judy, a cradle Catholic, nine years ago. Soon after they met, inspired by her faith, Jack asked to attend Mass with her. Sitting at the Crane Road Church, Judy next to him, he immediately felt "at home." They were married at the Downtown Church seven years ago March 25. They have not missed a weekend Mass or Holy Day of Obligation for nearly nine years.

Jack has been in the choir, serving as Extraordinary Eucharistic Minister for three years, attended Bible study, assisted in various parish events with different ministries and virtually everywhere he encountered Knights. Several suggested to Jack to give the Knights a look. April Knight of the Month will be announced at the May Meeting

Adoptionism, Monarchianism, & Modalism

What a nice KC family bike ride we enjoyed. So nice in fact that we are already eagerly anticipating the next ride in the fall. Like many journeys though, although the destination and route are pre-determined, unexpected things can happen along the way. Who would have thought, for example, that two of GK Jason Lynch's kids would wipe out right in front of us, or that the 14 souls that left the starting point would be only 8 upon return?

I experienced something akin to that as I prepared to write this article. In this case, my route was Jimmy Akin's book, "The Fathers Know Best," and the destination was a heresy known as "Adoptionism." The name caught my attention, naturally enough, because my wife and I are currently seeking to adopt four children from Poland. The trouble is Jimmy doesn't have much to say about this particular heresy:

"According to this view, Jesus was simply a man who was adopted as the Son of God... It is a form of Monarchianism..."

Great. What the heck is "Monarchianism?" Fortunately, Mr. Akin has an entry on that one too:

"This view holds that there is only one Person in the Godhead (the Father), who is the sole ruler of all creation... It can be understood different ways, resulting in different heresies - in particular, Modalism and Adoptionism."

Uh-oh, there's another one - "Modalism."

"This view holds that the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are not three Persons but three modes that a single divine Person exists in or experiences. These are often compared to how a single person can be a son, a husband, and a father, or how water can exist in liquid, solid, and gaseous states."

And then it hits me. This week (i.e. the week of this writing) started with the celebration of Trinity Sunday. The Holy Spirit has led me to these heresies precisely because they are in contradiction of that particular dogma.

Apply Your Faith

In what I consider to be a brilliant article about the Trinity, Dr. Marcellino D'Ambrosio makes the point that the Western concept of the dignity and uniqueness of each individual is borne of the doctrine of the Trinity. This is an idea that is not shared by other world religions nor found in ancient Greek or Roman societies. I encourage you read his entire article:

http://www.crossroadsinitiative.com/library_article/122/Trinity_Undivided.html

Dr. D'Ambrosio also comments that Christianity is not so much a list of rules to follow but rather a relationship with God who is Himself "a community of self-donating love." Being in His image, we can therefore only be truly happy if we too engage ourselves in a community of self-donating love. What is the Knights of Columbus if not a means by which we can experience such a community?

Join us in this beautiful First Saturday Devotion!

From the Field Agent

"Live On" or "Leave On" Money

As your working life progresses, your priorities will likely shift. Many major life events (weddings, births, education costs for children, etc.) are probably behind you. Your focus shifts to those "golden" retirement years when you can enjoy your hobbies, grandchildren, travel or simply relax at home.

During my career as a field agent, I've had members ask me what they should do with a sum of money they are looking to "dump" somewhere for safe keeping. First, I tell them that there is no safer place to put their money than with the Knights of Columbus. No one has ever lost money using our retirement products. There are no risks assumed by you, the members. Second, I ask the member a question: Is this money to "live on" or "leave on"?

I ask this because the answer makes all the difference. If you want a guaranteed flow of cash in retirement, one of our annuity options might meet your needs. If this money is intended as a gift for grandchildren, to assist your wife in the event of your passing or to give to your favorite charity, a Single Premium Whole Life policy might be the best product.

When it comes to decisions about your finances and your family's future, don't leave things to chance. Discuss the options with a brother Knight who knows how to help. Someone who's helped many other Catholic families not too different from yours. Someone who can offer you life insurance, long-term care, disability income and retirement products backed by the strength and security of an insurance provider rated among the top in the industry.

Call me today to set up a time to meet. You'll only regret that you didn't call sooner.

Family Bike Ride

The family bike ride was held on Saturday and was well attended by adults and children. The weather was great and fun was had by all.

Some of the riders asked if we could do another ride in the fall and so we will have a ride in October when the leaves on the trail are changing and it will be about two miles longer each way. Please send me any comments or suggestions for the ride or any other family activity to Burt Brown at burtonbrown@sbcglobal.net. Thanks for your participation.

Save the Date

The available time slots and locations will be posted on the Council's webpage this Summer, but here is a rough listing of some times and dates that you might consider reserving in your personal planning now. September 20 - 8am to 6pm, September 21 - noon to 5pm, September 22 noon to 5pm, October 5 - noon to 4pm, and October 6 - 7am to 3pm.

Pro-life Update

This month, I am publishing a letter from John Morales, the Producer and Director of the "40" film.

History Will Be Made!

Dear Brother Knights,

To coincide with the recent 40th anniversary of Roe v. Wade, Pro-Life Champions is honored to be working on the documentary, 40, which is sure to be the most groundbreaking pro-life documentary in history! We need the help of Knights of Columbus councils across our nation beginning with Illinois.

Directed by the producer of the award winning Champions of Faith: Baseball Edition, John E. Morales, and from Executive Producer and Movie to Movement Founder, Jason Jones, the film will feature inspiring stories and deeply personal interviews with champions of the pro-life movement. It will address some of the strongest arguments for the pro-choice/pro-abortion position countered by pro-life answers from a wide and diverse array of pro-life activists, leaders and youth.

40 features some of the biggest names in the pro-life movement such as Fr. Frank Pavone, National Director of Priests for Life, Investigative journalist Lila Rose, the President of Live Action, Abby Johnson, former Planned Parenthood abortion clinic director and senior Policy Adviser with American's United for Life, Rebecca Kiessling, Pro-life Speaker and Conceived in rape, Joe Scheidler, founder of the Pro-Life Action League, David Bereit, National Director of 40 Days for Life, and many more!

Click the link to watch the trailer: www.The40Film.com

However in order to make sure this movie achieves what we know it can, we need to raise $ 200,000 for post-production work and promotion! The push for $200,000 will be tough but we will get there dollar by dollar with your help! While we are pursuing major donors who have been a huge help, it will be the grassroots donor like you who will put us over the top!

We must get this film out this summer and we cannot afford a delay, lives depend on it! Please donate today so that we can open 40 nationwide and have it enter every home in America!

Thank you for your continued support. It will be your generosity and effort that will be credited for ending abortion!

Vivat Jesus!
