Fred's Findings

Greetings Brother <<First Name>>,

I cannot recall the exact year that I became a Knight but Robert Heise (transferred to Batavia Council) was the Grand Knight, then Tim Cooper, then Paul Herrmann, and most recently Jason Lynch. Back when I joined there is no way I ever envisioned being Grand Knight but here I am and I am honored by the trust my Brother Knights have in me. I pray that I am able to serve as well as those GK's before me. With your support and the grace of God, I know we will have a successful fraternal year as a Council. Again, looking back on joining the Council, I think I was asked maybe 3-4 times before I made the commitment to join. My brother-in-law played in our Council golf outing as a guest of Dennis Marquis many years ago and my brother-in-law said I should join. Then Dennis closed deal and I joined. The moral of this brief story is to keep asking!

I want to take this opportunity to brag about our Advocate Program. I know I mentioned this at the last Council meeting but when I was at the State Convention in early May, I heard on numerous occasions from KofC speakers and KofC trainers, "Have you heard of the Advocate Program?" And to think that this originated within our Council and won an International Award! For those of you seasoned members, if you are approached to be an Advocate, say yes. You will then be given the name of a new member, also known as a Columbian, who you will be asked to mentor to be an active member within our Council. Introduce them to existing members, encourage them to attend meetings, go to lunch with them outside of Council functions to get to better know them, before you know it, you have another friend. We can never have too many friends. Then this Columbian can be a future Advocate.

I noticed an interesting sign in front of a church in Elgin driving home from work recently, WATER". If I am in a pool drowning, you bet I want a Baywatch lifeguard (not David Hasselhoff) to save me. Yet, in our personal lives we are capable of drowning ourselves by letting pride, lust, gossip, greed, power, worldly vices, etc... run our lives. Many of us have probably witnessed family or friends dismiss the Bible, Mass, Prayer, The Sacraments and a Relationship with God as a lifeguard in our personal lives. Our Council does such a great job at doing Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy that our Relationship with God will naturally get strengthened. Being an active Knight will help you see our Lifeguard more clearly. We learn in Matthew 16:26, "What good will it be for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit their soul?"

I do want to thank those BK's and family who volunteered recently at Riverfest with selling wristbands. I do want to single out two volunteers in particular, Joanne Droho from the Ladies Auxiliary and BK Ed Borgstrom. For the past several years, I think on Saturday, Joanne works what I call the "Cal Ripken Ironman Shift", basically from start to finish. Joanne did get to leave early this year but she has been a loyal volunteer during wristbands. Riverfest runs Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Ed worked what I call the "Duncan Keith Shifts" in which he logged the most wristband time by showing up all 3 days to help. Thank you Joanne and Ed. For all our efforts during Riverfest, the Council will be receiving a check for approx $2,350 !!

Our Council golf outing on Monday July 15th is nearly upon us. It is not too late to donate a dozen golf balls at our July 8th Council meeting. As of July 1st, between verbal and registered commitments, we are approx 114 golfers and our goal is 120. Please say a prayer that we hit our goal.

On Tuesday July 30th, our Council is hosting a Priest Appreciation Dinner at St. John Neumann. Reservations to attend can be made on our Website Activity Page. Invitations have been extended to all Priests and Deacons at SJN and STP. Hopefully, the new SJN Pastor Fr. David Peck and new STP Associate Fr. Matthew Camaioni will be able to attend. More information can be heard at our Monday July 8th Council meeting.

In closing, I would ask that each of you load my contact information into your computer and cell. During business hours, it is OK to drop me an e-mail at work or call my direct work number. After hours, my cell and personal e-mail are the best way to reach me.

God Bless,

A Firm Commitment

Message for 6/30/13
13th Sunday in OT (C)

When Jesus calls us to follow him, he expects that we will make a firm commitment to him and follow him unreservedly, and not just when it is only convenient for us to do so. For us that can be most difficult at times because we are sometimes afraid to make our commitment firm. Yes, we are afraid of what others might think of us if we choose to follow Jesus unreservedly. We are afraid we might hurt someone's feelings if we prefer Jesus' way rather than theirs. If we are truly honest with ourselves, we must admit that our faith is wishy-washy at times when we fail to stand up and be counted as a committed Christian. The truth hurts at times, but it sets us free to follow Jesus unreservedly. Paul's words to the Galatians in our second reading (Gal 5:1,13-18) spells out this firm commitment quite clearly: "Brothers and sisters: It was for liberty that Christ freed us. So stand firm, and do not take on the yoke of slavery a second time. Remember that you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another. I say, then: live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh. For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want. But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law."

Similarly, notice how Elisha begged off from following Elijah unreservedly in the first reading from the first book of Kings (1 Kgs 19:16-21): "Elijah went over to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, 'Please, let me kiss my father and mother goodbye, and I will follow you.' Elijah answered, 'Go back! Have I done anything to you?' Elisha left him, and taking the yoke of oxen, slaughtered them; he used the plowing equipment for fuel to boil their flesh, and gave it to his people to eat. Then Elisha left and followed Elijah as his attendant." (Unreservedly) In this case, we see how Elisha disposed of everything he owned, paid respect to his family, and then followed Elijah unreservedly. When Elijah threw his cloak over Elisha, that represented the transmitting of Elijah's charisma of prophecy to Elisha. This passage is similar to today's gospel in Luke (Lk 9:51-62) when Jesus calls his disciples to follow him: "As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to Jesus, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' Jesus answered him, 'Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head.' And to another he said, 'Follow me.' But he replied, 'Lord, let me go first and bury my father.' But he answered him, 'Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.' And another said, 'I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home.' To him Jesus said, 'No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God.'" God's word to

Iconoclasm

Recently my wife and I were invited to attend a performance of "Fiddler on the Roof, Jr." put on by the Willow Creek Community Church Special Friends ministry. Located in South Barrington, Willow Creek is accurately described as a non-denominational, protestant, mega-church. As suggested by the name of the ministry, the performers were special needs kids, helped along by their peer mentors.

As any Knight who has helped out with the Special Olympics can tell you, it is great to see these kids given the opportunity to take part in such events. And we would be remiss not to appreciate the very real, and very Christ-like outreach Willow Creek promotes through this and its many other ministries.

That being said, I could not help but notice a little irony as the performance began. Willow Creek has a comfortable auditorium with stage, lighting, sound, and video that could easily be the envy of many a lesser theater. The impressive theater, while being well suited to performance, is also their worship space; and yet, there is nary so much as a cross to be found. So while the performers joyously opened with the song "Tradition," noticeably absent to me was any symbol of Christian tradition. No altar. No statues. No iconography.

In the wake of the Reformation, as the various protestant factions sought to further distance and distinguish themselves from the Catholic Church, the use of images and statues came to be eliminated, having been deemed idolatrous. Such an idea was far from novel in the sixteenth century however. Indeed the Church had previously battled that same idea 800 years earlier.

Emperor Leo III condemned the use of icons in 730 and initiated a crisis in the Eastern (Catholic) Church known as Iconoclasm. The us in these narratives are quite clear: "Accept the challenge to be a resolute Christian."

Responsorial Psalm 16:1-11 sums up this commitment to follow the Lord unreservedly: R. (cf. 5a) "You are my inheritance, O Lord. Keep me, O God, for in you I take refuge; I say to the LORD, "My Lord are you. O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup, you it is who hold fast my lot." I bless the LORD who counsels me; even in the night my heart exhorts me. I set the LORD ever before me; with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed. Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices, my body, too, abides in confidence because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption. You will show me the path to life, fullness of joys in your presence, the delights at your right hand forever."

May the Lord bless you with his love and commitment to you, and may you return the favor to him. Love and Prayers,

Love and Prayers,
Fr. Joe

Ladies Auxiliary Report

Hello All!

Brother Knights, please extend an invitation to your wives and/or daughters (18 or older) to gather with us at our meetings. Christian women of any denomination are invited to join the Ladies Auxiliary. Our next meeting is scheduled for Monday, August 5, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the Father Carse Center (downtown church basement). For more information, please call Doris at 630-901-3163.

We enjoyed taking part in the Pride of the Fox Riverfest activities with the Knights last month. Congratulations to the Knight Riders Dragon Boat team who placed second in the Lizard Division! Thanks to Fred Weber for the great job of grilling for the picnic, the Knights for supplying the main dish, and all the others who contributed with a side. It was a beautiful day, lots of great food, and a wonderful time to enjoy fellowship with the Knights, Ladies and their families.

The next "Dine at Gabby's" day is coming up soon. All day Sunday, July 14th and/or the previous evening on Saturday, July 13th after the evening Masses, anyone who dines at Gabby's (on Rt. 64 in St. Charles) can put their paid receipt in the "KC Ladies Auxiliary" container near the register. The receipts will be totaled and the Ladies Auxiliary will receive 10%! Gabby's is very generous in continuing the "Dine at Gabby's" to help support the work of the Ladies Auxiliary. Please remember to drop in your receipt! We appreciate your support and thank you, word means "image-breaking" and came into use to because the proponents of this idea would literally break the icons used in some churches. Pope St. Gregory II defied Leo in upholding the use of icons much to the ire of the emperor. In fact, Leo tried to have Gregory arrested; but the fleet he sent to do so, wrecked along the way.

The controversy raged for decades. In 787 the Second Council of Nicaea reversed Leo's ruling but that did not end the crisis. The influence went back and forth between the opposing sides until finally icons were restored permanently in 843 under Empress Theodora II.

Icons serve a wonderful purpose. Paragraph 1160 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) puts it this way:

Christian iconography expresses in images the same Gospel message that Scripture communicates by words. Image and word illuminate each other:

In the same paragraph, the CCC quotes from the document put out by the Second Council of Nicaea in 787. In essence, the Council affirmed both the written and unwritten traditions of the Church, including representational artwork.

Apply Your Faith

On a short vacation in Austria a couple of years ago, I noticed iconography depicted on the exteriors of many buildings and the ubiquitous presence of little shrines throughout the land, including the mountainside farm of my wife's relatives, where we stayed overnight. When I asked why they had the shrine out there in the field the woman said that when she's working she can glance over to it and get a good feeling.

That is a pretty succinct way of extolling the benefit of keeping our minds on God. I encourage you to incorporate icons throughout your home. Hang a beautiful picture on a wall; maybe put a little Marian shrine in your garden. And as you go about your daily chores, look to those images and bask in the good feeling they engender.

Life, Liberty and Happiness

On this Independence Day, I reflect back to the state of our nation back in 1776 and the guiding words of that declaration...

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights,

Family Picnic

On June 8th we held our annual Family Picnic as part of the St. Charles RiverFest Celebration. Congratulations to all those who participated in the dragon boat races.

We were able to earn a 2nd place finish in the Lizard Division thanks to everyone's effort and enthusiasm.

We were also awarded the 2013 Dragon Boat Races "SPIRIT AWARD." This award was bestowed on our team due to the effort & inspiration of our Knights of Columbus & World War II veteran Ed Gorecki (who is now 92 years old). Ed didn't just cheer us on, he served in the boat as our drummer for 2 of the 3 races.

This was a VERY IMPRESSIVE thing that Ed did for us, but not surprising since he has been that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.

These truths, in order of priority are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Without Liberty the population is not free to pursue happiness and without Life, there is no liberty.

The first unalienable Right, the Right to Life is under attack by the government! Any law or ruling that does not protect life is a ruling against life! The Catholic Church teaches in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) in paragraph 2270 that life begins at the point of conception and must be respected and protected.

I am not saying that we need to do an Egypt style of revolt, but we need to be aware that it is our right to alter or abolish and institute a new government! It is only through the consent of the governed that the government derives its power.

The attacks continue. Most recently, the June 26th Supreme Court decision to strike down the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA).

...serving his fellow man since before the start of World War II.

THANK YOU ED, and thanks to everyone who was a part of our Dragon Boat Racing day on Saturday 6/8/13.

We had a great time with our family picnic! Lots of great food and fellowship. The ski show was exciting and entertaining.

Priest Appreciation Dinner

We are planning a Priest Appreciation Dinner (barbeque) for the evening of July 30th at St. John Neumann. The purpose is to thank the priests of both parishes for their service and for their support of the Council.

The evening of fellowship is open to spouses. Food and drink will be included in the approximately $25 per person charge. More details will be provided at the July council meeting, in the July Unitas, and online.

So save the date now and join us for a night of fun and fellowship honoring our parish priests!

Cardinal Raymond Burke (former Bishop of La Crosse and Archbishop of St. Louis), who heads the Apostolic Signatura, stated "You can't tell me the founders of the United States of America didn't have a respect for nature and a profound sense of it," and continued "The family shapes society, and by advocating for and promoting strong, traditional family life, we will continue to replace the culture of death with the culture of life and love for which God calls us to work."

We must fight for a culture of life, and to do this we need to dictate that the government stop this long train of abuses and protect life from conception until natural death!

Our guarantees set us apart

Knights of Columbus life insurance offers something precious few other financial products can — guarantees. As long as you pay your premiums, the policy proceeds will be there for your beneficiaries should something happen to you. We call that peace of mind, and that's what we offer with our Shield for Life.

We guarantee the cash value in your whole life policies will be there.

We guarantee the rates on your term insurance.

We guarantee our retirement products will provide a stream of income when you need it.

On top of those product guarantees, I guarantee that I will offer professional, high-quality service that you would expect from our organization.

You don't have to take my word for it. The Order consistently earns the highest ratings for strength and security from AM Best. There is no more highly rated life insurance provider in North America. When you couple this with all the charitable and volunteer work of the Order, it's hard to beat the value of Knights of Columbus Insurance.

I would suggest that a principal reason that we were able to achieve those accolades is because we remain steadfastly committed to Individual to assist the Director of Membership by accomplishing any or all the below items:

- Write and submit Bulletin Announcements and Pulpit Announcements to St. Patrick and St. John Neumann Churches on a semi-monthly basis.
- Update the Posters at St. Patrick and St. John Neumann Churches on a semi-monthly basis.
- Create a Flyer periodically and post at St. John Neumann and St. Patrick Churches.

Thank You to the membership

I would like to extend a special thank you to the membership for the generous help that you gave me on the two Misericordia Candy Days. The Knights Of Columbus have been a staunch supporter of Misericordia over the last 35 years. It seems that our State Government has decided that their money is better spent elsewhere since people with disabilities may not vote or pay taxes. It is easy to write those people off.

Thank you from me, my family and the 650 residents of the Misericordia Home.

Paddyfest

Paddyfest will be the weekend of August 24-25, 2013. The KofC will be needed to set up tents at the Crane Road Church on Saturday August 24 (8:00 am-11:00 am) and then tear down on Sunday August 25 (5:00 pm-7:00 pm). A lot of manpower is needed to make this go.

the vision of Father Michael J. McGivney by providing life insurance by brother Knights for brother Knights.

That commitment is an essential core value of the Order, and our core values permeate all levels of our organization. These principles for marketing are summed up by our Golden Rule: "In all my professional relationships, I pledge myself to the following rule of conduct: I shall, in light of all conditions surrounding those I serve, render that service which, under the same circumstances, I would apply to myself."

LAST CALL FOR THE JULY 15TH GOLF OUTING

The finishing touches are being made to the 14th Annual Chuck Hollenbach "Never Give Up on Life" Memorial Outing on Monday July 15th at Royal Fox CC hosted by Fellowes, Inc., Wirtz Beverage Illinois, Orkin Commercial Services and Relevant Radio. Our main goal this year is to hit 120 golfers. Between paid and verbal commitments, we are at 111 golfers. Voluntary donations of a dozen golf balls can still be made at the July 8th Council meeting. 100% of our outing profits support the pro-life mission of the Fox Valley Pregnancy Center. There is still time to be a golfer, be a sponsor, donate a raffle/silent auction item or buy an advertisement in the event book. Lastly, please pray for seasonable weather the day of the outing.

FIRST DEGREE

The last First Degree ceremony of the Fraternal year was held on Thursday, June 27. We added two new members to our Council and one to Batavia. Please welcome these two gentlemen, Alex Karl and Peter Bellino. Do the last names look familiar? They should, as each of these individuals has a father who is a Knight in our Council.

ORIENTATION

We will be conducting an Orientation in July. If you have not attended and would like to participate, please let Paul Braddock know.

Save the Date

Please consider saving from your busy calendars a two hour time-slot to help with our Fall 2013 Intellectual Disabilities Fund Drive. Our "Tootsie Roll" efforts help so many persons with their life struggles and so many organizations to do their works of charity. The available time slots and locations will be posted on the Council's webpage this Summer, but here is a rough listing of some times and dates that you might consider reserving in your personal planning now. September 20 - 8am to 6pm, September 21 - noon to 5pm, September 22 noon to 5pm, October 5 - noon to 4pm, and October 6 - 7am to 3pm.
