Fred's Findings

Greetings Brother <<First Name>>>,

Happy New Year and Best Wishes for a Blessed 2014!

While at church on Sunday Jan. 5th, The Solemnity of the Epiphany, we have a Missalette at St. Pat's that summarizes the reading's for each Sunday. The Gospel was about the Magi visiting the baby Jesus. The publisher of the Missalette so eloquently writes, "It is the story of being drawn out from what is familiar and led to something that exceeds one's hopes and desires. It is the story of every restless heart that will not find rest until it rests in God." Brothers, whether we realize it or not, we are all seeking to be led to something that will exceed our hopes and desires. I truly believe the path for this is to get closer to God.

For those of you that have not yet committed to a New Year's resolution, allow me to make a suggestion, allow yourself to be led something that will exceed your hopes and desires, EXPAND YOUR FAITH. So specifically what do I have to do?

1. I know of 3 programs, all of which are managed by BK's, make the commitment to attend at least one of these programs, if you already attend one, then do two:
 - Men Walking With Christ: 2nd Saturday of each month, Crane Rd. church, 7 am mass, confession, rosary, breakfast and speaker, done by 9:30am, the next MWWC is Sat. Jan. 11th.
 - Bible Study: learn about St. Paul and his letters to the Romans, sessions are scheduled for every Thursday in January, 7 pm to 9 pm at Crane Rd.
 - Marriage Ministry: Their next event is a Valentine's Day Dinner dance on Saturday Feb. 8th in Father Dempsey Hall at Crane Rd.

Not only are these opportunities to expand your faith but you also have the opportunity expand your friendships with those that have like-minded interests. If there are other programs managed by BK's that I need to mention, please let me know. Please reach out to me if you wish to learn more about any of the above programs.

2. Make the commitment to protect your family. What does this have to do with expanding my faith? You are doing things that are pleasing in the eyes of God. I have been married for 28 years and earlier in our marriage, Tina would constructively suggest to me that I did not display enough public affection toward her such as holding her hand or putting my arm around her. Not realizing that I was constantly a work in progress, I dismissed her suggestion. Then I got some advice from a friend of mine who really made an effort at displaying this public affection toward his wife as it was not only a confidence builder for this wife and their relationship but he made sure his kids saw it whenever possible. It gave his kids a sense of security knowing that Mom and Dad loved each other. It also set a good example for his son and others on how Men should treat Women. After this advice from my friend, I realized that I am a work in progress, not only in displaying public affection toward Tina but in my work, my faith, my overall relationship with Tina and the kids, my golf game, in everything I do.

These are just some suggestions that I have but the real message is to do something to EXPAND YOUR FAITH.

For those of you that have younger kids, another good New Year's resolution would be to do college planning with our K of C Field Agent Greg Paul (708-601-5489). Many years ago, in my early years in banking, I took the education to receive my Certified Financial Planner (CFP) designation. A favorite saying among planners was "people do not plan to fail, they fail to plan." Do not be the one that fails to plan. Often times it is evident that a family has a need to plan for college but they are confused on what to do or what if I make a wrong decision on an investment, so "analysis-paralysis" sets in and they do nothing. The important thing is to get started and do something. It would be time well spent to hook up with Greg to discuss college planning or any other planning needs you may have.

Last year in February 2013, our Council hosted a Fraternal Benefits Night, which was in essence an open house promote the benefits of membership within our Order and Council 12497. It could also be a refresher for an existing Knight. The weather was awful that evening yet we had three gentlemen attend who all became Brother Knights a week later. This year, our Fraternal Benefits Night is scheduled for Monday Feb. 3rd, 7 pm at the Downtown Church in the Fr. Carse Center. Our next First Degree is then a week later on Monday Feb. 10th prior to our regularly scheduled Council meeting at STJN. Our fraternal year runs from July 1st to June 30th. Thus far in this current fraternal year, we have 10 new Brother Knights. We are all responsible for adding to the membership of our Council. Please invite a friend to join us.

Lastly, we all were recently given some very worthwhile reading material, The Joy of the Gospel Apostolic Exhortation from Pope Francis. Find it online, read just the first 3 paragraphs then decide if you should read further.

God Bless,

The Four Marks of the Church - Part IV

The Church is Apostolic

CCC 865 starts: "The Church is ultimately one, holy, catholic, and apostolic in her deepest and ultimate identity, because it is in her that "the Kingdom of heaven," the "Reign of God," already exists and will be fulfilled at the end of time."

Chaplain's Report

Christ The Light

Message for 1/5/14
The Epiphany (ABC)

Christ The Light

Did you ever wonder why the three wise men from the east were the only ones to see the star of Bethlehem? Why didn't Herod's astrologers see it? Why weren't more stargazers able to observe this great phenomenon, the star that guided those who were able to see it to Jesus, Mary and Joseph in that little town of Bethlehem? Whenever I look up in the heavens to observe the stars in the night, I often wonder about the star of Bethlehem. How could one of those stars up there ever guide anyone to a particular spot on this earth? It amazed me no end, until I realized that this star of Bethlehem was a very special star, not like all the rest of those zillions of stars up there. This star was powered from a very special source, obviously the Holy Spirit, and it rose and hovered low in the sky and moved in itself, not like all the other stars, which appear stationary. It had to be this way in order for it to point out the direction one should take in order to follow it. Not only that, but it came to a standstill over the place where the child was, thus showing the Magi where to go.

"They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house, found the child with Mary his mother." And what did they do? "They prostrated themselves and did him homage." This means that they lay flat on their stomachs as a symbol of honor before the Babe of Bethlehem, the newborn King of all peoples. I remember doing this during my ordination to the priesthood when we lay flat on our stomachs before the Lord while the congregation prayed to the Holy Spirit for us. It was very humbling and a great honor to lie there before the Lord and give him the gift of self.

And what happened next? "Then they opened their coffers and presented him with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh." Again, these were symbolic gifts of life: gold, which represents the Kingship of Christ; frankincense, which represents the sweetness of prayer to God; and myrrh, which represents the pain and suffering Christ was to endure for all of us, also used for anointing and embalming. They gave of themselves with gifts of great value at that time.

When you stop to think about it, our Lord Jesus, the Babe of Bethlehem, sends out the Holy Spirit to all of us, just as he did to the Magi. Only believers in our Lord and Savior see the Star of Bethlehem, the Light of Christ. We must look with the eyes of faith for this light in the sky that will lead us to the infant babe in the manger. We must follow this light unreservedly in order to reach our goal, the house of Jesus. We must share the "gold" of our being so that others, too, may see the light. Our prayers and adoration before the Lord must rise like the incense of frankincense, an odor of sweetness to the Lord. And our pain and

We have already explored that the Church is one because it is one body, with Jesus Christ as the head. It is holy because Jesus remains in her and grants her the means and mission to engender our sanctification, our call to holiness. The Church is catholic not only because she is universal in her application but also because she operates in keeping with the whole of all Christ gave her for the salvation of mankind. Now it is time to consider what it means that the Church is apostolic.

One way in which the Church is apostolic is the historical fact that the leadership of the church can be traced back in unbroken succession to St. Peter and the first apostles. In his book "Catholicism" Fr. Robert Barron (2011), reiterating that Christianity is foremost not a philosophy but rather a relationship with a particular person, Jesus of Nazareth, points to those first apostles as those men "who were privileged to be in Jesus' intimate company" (p.167). Through their successors, the bishops, the Church continues today to hold to the same creed and Christian way of life as that taught by the men who knew Jesus best.

Apostolicity, viewed in this light, is what gives credence to the Church's claim to authority over the interpretation of scripture. CCC 862, itself quoting Lumen Gentium 20, points out the teaching of the Church that "the bishops have by divine institution taken the place of the apostles as pastors of the Church, in such wise that whoever listens to them is listening to Christ and whoever despises them despises Christ and him who sent Christ."

Another aspect of the apostolic nature of the church is found in the meaning of the word "apostle" which means "one who is sent." The Church is apostolic because she is sent into the world to proclaim the gospel. Consider what Pope Francis (2013) wrote in his recent Apostolic Exhortation "Evangelii Gaudium"

111. Evangelization is the task of the Church. The Church, as the agent of evangelization, is more than an organic and hierarchical institution; she is first and foremost a people advancing on its pilgrim way towards God. She is certainly a mystery rooted in the Trinity, yet she exists concretely in history as a people of pilgrims and evangelizers, transcending any institutional expression, however necessary.

And later, in paragraph 120:

The new evangelization calls for personal involvement on the part of each of the baptized. Every Christian is challenged, here and now, to be actively engaged in evangelization; indeed, anyone who has truly experienced God's saving love does not need much time or lengthy training to go out and proclaim that love.

So, brother Knight, do you claim to be part of the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic church? Then you too are called to evangelize. You too are sent to proclaim the love of God. And guess what? You are already doing that by virtue of being an active Knight. By demonstrating the principles of suffering must combine with that of Christ in order to embalm us with his myrrh, his saving grace.

May the light of Christ lead you to his heavenly kingdom and may he bless you and yours in every way.

Love and Prayers,
Fr. Joe

Ladies Auxiliary Report

Hello All!

Happy New Year!

We wrapped up 2013 on a high note! Working with the Knights to bring Breakfast with Santa to the parishioners of St. Patrick was a huge success! The crafts for the children were a hit as well as the completion of 12 fleece blankets to be donated to Fox Valley Pregnancy Center! The blankets were blessed during assembly and will be delivered soon. We did not take photos this year, but invited parents to take their own photos of their child(ren) with Santa. This event was a success because of the cooperation of all those who helped in any way. Thank you all!!

April Lynch supervised the "Keep Christ in Christmas" poster contest. The winning posters from our council were sent to the next level. Thank you to all those who participated!

On Monday, December 16, we treated the religious sisters to dinner at Gabby's. That evening the Auxiliary presented a plaque to Gabby's in appreciation of the support they give us. Also, in conjunction with the dinner, we collected baby items for the Fox Valley Pregnancy Center in South Elgin. Much appreciated diapers, formula and various other baby needs were delivered to the center that week.

Here I Am Lord is coming soon! Once again the Ladies will be preparing and serving the Friday evening meal to the Religious in attendance. We look forward to reconnecting with those attending HIAL this year.

Gabby's in St. Charles is still supporting the Ladies Auxiliary 1 All day Sunday, January 12th and Saturday, January 11th after the 4:00 Mass, we ask anyone who dines at Gabby's (on Rt. 64 in St. Charles) to put their paid receipt in the "KC Ladies Auxiliary" container near the register. The receipts will be totaled and the Ladies Auxiliary will receive 10% of the sales! If you will be dining at Gabby's on those days, please drop in your receipt! We appreciate your support and thank Gabby's for this opportunity!

Charity, Fraternity, and Unity, you are living out the kerygma, the apostolic proclamation of salvation through Jesus Christ!

Stand up for Life

March for Life - Chicago

January 22, 2014 will mark the 41st anniversary of the Supreme Court Decision to "legalize" abortion. Since then over 40 million lives have been lost.

It has been said that the only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing.

I can think of no evil greater than the evil of abortion. And since the St. Charles Knights of Columbus is a collection of very good men, I know that they will do something.

This year, instead of going to Washington DC to march in the National March for Life, I am coordinating a group to go to the March for Life Chicago on Sunday January 19th. Rather than needing to take time off from work and incur the expense of travelling to and staying in Washington DC, you will be able to make the public statement that we are not going to stand by and do nothing.

We will carpool from St. Patrick Crane Road Church at 9:25AM to the Bartlett Metra Station and then travel to Chicago attend the 11:00AM Mass at St. Peter on West Madison in Chicago. Time will then be allowed to get lunch at a nearby fast food restaurant At 12:45 we will walk to the beginning of the March (Federal Plaza at 50 W. Adams). We will then march about 4/10 of a mile to the State of Illinois Building (100 W. Randolph). After the March we will take the train back to the Bartlett Metra and then we will go to Gabby's to share a meal and stories of the days events.

If you chose to use some other transportation to get to Chicago and wish to meet up with us, see the proposed agenda below to know where we will be at any given time. Please do not hesitate to call me if you can't find us.

The Cost for the round trip Metra transportation is $7 per person. You will be on your own for lunch and dinner.

President, Ladies Auxiliary

We would like to invite any of our brother Knights to a men's small group Bible study. We, currently six of us, call it a 'light' Bible study because we address any topic regarding our Catholic faith that arises from our current study of the book of Romans. The material we use is free and online at agapebiblestudy.com. The group doesn't have an official facilitator and yes, sometimes we do get off our intended subject and into some theological points which require further research.

Our next meeting will be on Thursday, December 12 at 7:00 pm at Crane Road Church. We hope many of you will join us and learn more about our fantastic Catholic faith.

God bless you & yours,
Lance Christensen

Upcoming Family Activities

The annual Council bowling party will be held on Saturday, January 25, 2014 at Funway from 4 P.M. until about 6:30 to 7 P.M., bowling starts at 4 P.M. and a pizza dinner courtesy of the Council will be served from 5:30 to 6:30 or 7 P.M.. The cost of bowling is $45.00 per hour per lane with a maximum of 6 bowler per lane.

Bring the whole family as well and any prospective new members. If you have any questions contact Brother Burt Brown by phone at 630-940-4243 or by email at burtonbrown@sbcglobal.net. Please sign up on line and sign up early.

Four parts of retirement: Phase four

Okay, if you've been following along in my articles, you've read about the first phases that lead to retirement. Protection and accumulation of savings are the first time, followed by de-accumulation of those funds while making them last.

The final phase is care. At some point, at some age (hopefully a very advanced age), you will need to slow down. You will no longer be able to care for yourself. At that point, you will need to have assets available to provide much needed care, either at home or in a care facility.

As you probably know, the cost of care continues to rise. I cannot quote you a number here (I could give you specific details in a face-to-face

The annual roller skating party will be held again at Funway on Saturday, February 15th. Watch for more information.

Open Service Positions

1. Community Director

The Community Director coordinates and oversees the Council's programs that take place in our community. These programs have sub chairmen that run the actual events: the Intellectual Disabilities Fund (Tootsie Roll) drive, Road Side cleanup, Misericordia Candy Days, Salvation Army bell ringing, Special Olympics, Council's entry in St. Charles's St. Patrick's Day parade, and Riverfest wristband sales.

2. Intellectual Disabilities Fund drive chairman

The IDF/Tootsie Roll chairman organizes the Council members and outside volunteers to staff collection locations, orders supplies, and prepares any reports required by our State organization. Various Knights assist as captains on given days and/or at various locations.

3. Pies By The Guys chairman

The Pies By The Guys chairman would start planning at the September council meeting, which would culminate in pie production and distribution on the Saturday before Thanksgiving. The Chairman solicits and organizes the sales force at all three churches for at least three weeks leading up to the Saturday before Thanksgiving, organizes the weekly pie sales, is the visible lead at Council meetings, recommends outside advertising to increase sales, makes sure online sign-ups are placed on our Council website, communicates with Michelle Heffron on pie production orders, arranges for lunch the day of the production, organizes the distribution at STP & STJN, organizes late pick-up, and timely delivers funds to the Financial Secretary.

New Knights

Welcome new Knights

The seven individuals who celebrated Knighthood in December will be attending their Orientation on Sunday, 1/12/14. Each of them have already advanced forward with their 2nd and 3rd Degree.

Please help welcome them into our Council at our Business Meeting on Monday, January 13, 2014.

meeting), but the nationwide average grows by leaps and bounds. How do you plan to cover these costs? Government programs might not be available, or might require you to spend down your assets leaving your family with little.

The best way to handle the cost of care in the future is to plan ahead today. The Knights of Columbus offers long-term care insurance that can cover at home or facility care costs. And our product is backed by the financial strength of the Order. It has many benefits and our premiums are competitive with any other company.

The Knights of Columbus – the organization you trust – is in a position to help you with every phase. Life insurance, disability insurance, guaranteed retirement plans that turn into guaranteed income streams when you retire, and long term care. There is no reason to go elsewhere as you prepare for the four phases!

Membership Director Report

Each of the seven new members who joined in December had a different Proposer. No one person Proposed more than one individual. I am grateful to all of our members for allowing the Holy Spirit to work through each of you. Our Council enjoys a variety of men by virtue of having many Proposers.

Advocate Program Report

KNIGHTS ADVOCATE  The Knights Advocate Program director Dennis Marquis

announced the advancement of seventeen "Brothers" from the Advocate program. Percival Tabieros, George Spyrnal, Roman Seckel, Ken Taylor, Manny Frogoso, Chris Hamel, Colin Quinn, Andrew Dina, Andy Flasch, Jonathon Losurdo, Tom Johnson, Jeff Ricketts, Scott Hale, David Mann, Peter Soltesz, Patrick Para and Paul Kreiner, are the most recent "Columbians" to participate in this mentoring program. The Knights Advocate Program pairs our newest members, called a Columbian, with an experienced member of the Council, called an Advocate. The Advocate helps the Columbian familiarize himself the opportunities and procedures of the Knights of Columbus in general and our Council in particular. Program director Dennis Marquis said that these seventeen Brothers have become active, vital members of our Council and he looks forward to their continued participation.

Volunteer Opportunity

Jesus said that whatever you do to the least of My brethren, that you do unto Me. Pope Francis has strongly suggested that we Catholics get out and show the world about our loving God and our religion by helping the poor and disadvantaged.

If you are looking for an opportunity to help the poor, please consider volunteering with other parish members and Knights at Aurora's Hesed House for the homeless for a four hour shift one night, once every other month, during the school year. Some shifts serve supper or breakfast. One shift prepares lunch bags and monitors the sleeping halls. The program is in need of volunteers--even on a once or twice a year basis. If you have any questions, contact DGK Bob Gilmartin or Sir Knight Jon Mielke. If you want to volunteer, call Mrs. Cora Remus at 630-262-1366.
